SENIOR MANAGEMENT CHANGES

Strike Energy Limited ("Strike") (ASX:STX) is pleased to announce the following changes to its management team effective 1 July 2014. These changes complement the previously announced Board changes which were effective from 30 June 2014.

Mr Chris Thompson, currently General Manager, Cooper Basin has been appointed to an expanded role as the Company's Chief Operating Officer. Mr Thomson will be responsible for the company's portfolio of exploration, evaluation and development activities with a primary focus on the Southern Cooper Basin Gas Project.

In addition Mr David Baker, currently a non-executive Director of the Company will assume the role of Executive Director – Commercial. In his new role, Mr Baker will be responsible for commercial initiatives required to progress the development of the Southern Cooper Basin Gas Project.

Commenting on these changes, Mr Mark Carnegie, Strike's Chairman, said:

"The appointment of Chris and David to their new roles together with the previously announced Board changes gives the Company a high quality, experienced leadership team focussed on the rapid development and commercialisation of the Company's assets."

Yours faithfully
