CHIEF FINANCIAL OFFICER APPOINTMENT

Strike Energy Limited (ASX:STX) (“Strike” or the “Company”) is pleased to announce a key change to the management team.

As announced on 1 June 2017, Strike is relocating its head office from Sydney to Adelaide, South Australia. Strike’s Chief Financial Officer, Matthew Montano, has elected not to transfer with the Company headquarters to Adelaide. As such, Strike has appointed Justin Ferravant to take up the role of CFO effective from the 21st of August 2017. Justin will also assume the role of Company Secretary.

Exiting CFO, Matthew Montano, has been an asset to Strike over his tenure in the role and has been instrumental in onboarding the new management team and preparing the Company for its relocation. Strike thanks Matthew for his diligence and commitment over this period and for readying the Company for its exciting second half of 2017. Matthew will conclude his full-time employment at Strike on the 31st of August 2017 but will remain as an occasional advisor to the Company to ensure business continuity is maintained.

Justin is a Certified Practising Accountant (Australia) with over 15 years’ experience in Australia and Asia. He is currently Finance Manager at Santos Limited for the Cooper Basin and is responsible for joint venture financial reporting and controllership. Previously, Justin has held leadership roles in commercial analysis, finance and reporting at Origin Energy, General Electric Plastics (Japan) and Deloitte Consulting (Japan).

Justin’s expertise includes implementing financial controls, improving cash flow, strategy and planning, and leading finance and cross functional teams. He has supported assessment and delivery of major development projects at Origin Energy and possesses financial and risk management skills to further enable Strike to focus on the rapid commercialisation of the major gas resource located within the Southern Cooper Basin.

As part of Justin’s employment agreement, he will be granted 1 million options to subscribe for fully paid ordinary shares within 7 days of commencement of his employment at an exercise price of $0.15 and exercisable within 3 years. The options will be granted without shareholder approval.
